FORM 8.8

Stories about Outcomes

One way of thinking about alternatives is to come up with stories about what would have to happen for that outcome to occur. In the form below, list the most probable outcome, the best outcome, and a neutral outcome. Then describe in detail what would have to happen for these outcomes to occur. What specific action could you take?

Type of outcome	What would have to happen? What would I have to do?
Most probable outcome
Best possible outcome
Neutral outcome
